WORKING FOR A
GREATER PATCHOGUE

Volume 7, Issue 8
August 2004

VIP Card

The chamber's Business Promotion Committee plans to capture the business of the students, faculty and other employees at our local colleges by presenting them with a "Patchogue College VIP Card."

These cards will be distributed in time for fall classes and will be good through 2005. We will have logos to place on the doors of participating businesses.

The cards will offer 10% off purchases. Some restrictions may apply as we negotiate with individual businesses.

Businesses will pay $25 to participate.

If you are interested, or would like more information, please call Lorice Fiala at 475-0070 or the chamber office at 475-0121.

Sidewalk Sale Days

Patchogue's annual Back to School Sidewalk Sale Days will be held Aug. 5-7. This coincides with the Aug. 6 Alive After 5 and is a great opportunity to get your merchandise out to a large audience.

Art Will Line Main Street

Patchogue's first annual "Celebration of the Arts" will be held on Saturday, Sept. 4., with a rain date of Sept. 11. This is a juried professional art show that is expected to bring more than 50 of Long Island's best artists to town. Attendance by the public is free.

Emily Valenti of Holbrook is one of the more than 50 professional artists who will display their works at Patchogue's "Celebration of the Arts". She posed with some of her fine crafts on display at Joy's Corner Gallery and Studio.

The artists will display their work along the center of East Main Street which will be closed between South Ocean Avenue and Maple Avenue from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Works will be for both display and sale.

A panel of judges will make awards in the categories of Oil/Acrylic, Watercolor, Pastel, Mixed Media, Graphics, Sculpture, Photography, and Fine Handmade Crafts.

The event is being run by the Foundation's Cultural Arts Committee, chaired by Joy Soper Martucci of Joy's Corner Gallery and Studio at 22 East Main Street.

If you stop in to Joy's you can also see some of the art works that will be sold at the Village Business Promotion Art Auction on Oct. 1.

Optimists Smile on Patchogue

The Patchogue Kiwanis Club was solicited to provide volunteers to help manage the week long event and to feed hundreds of people at a Thursday night barbecue. Other local residents and businesses also pitched in. North Fork and Commerce Banks were major contributors and local restaurants agreed to provide discounts for the visitors. Families from Tennessee, Alabama and Michigan were among those we spotted patronizing local businesses. Experienced regatta participants, they commented on how well this event was being managed. It turned out to be (we are told) the biggest Optimist national championship ever.

There are lots of sail boat classes. Perhaps we will have more such events.

Congressman Tim Bishop was on hand July 24 to help celebrate the 57th birthday of Amvets Post 111.

Former New York Mayor Rudolph Giuliani, campaigning with Republican Congressional candidate Bill Manger (left), signed autographs during a July 9 stop along Main Street at Alive After 5.

Patchogue was a more Optimistic place during the last week in July. We had been hearing for months about the big deal national event that was coming to town, but it was not until 428 8 to 15 year old youngsters and their families arrived on Sunday, July 25 that we realized the significance of the event.

Optimist is a class of sail boats, bath tub sized boats that are a primary training tool for thousands of young people across the nation. Last year their national championship regatta was on Lake Michigan in Chicago. This year the decision was made to tackle the world class waters of Great South Bay and the Bellport Yacht Club, as hosts, turned to Patchogue's Shorefront Park as their site.
