From The President

What could be more positive for Patchogue and our Chamber than the grand openings of four new businesses in a month? Warm welcomes were extended to BMB Wines & Liquors on East Main Street and Roast Coffee and Tea Trading Co., Platinum Day Spa and Village Idiot Pub, located near our famous Four Corners.

The Business Promotion Committee Holiday promotion is to "Save Your Receipts" while shopping at various Chamber member stores and dining at Chamber member restaurants from November 26th thru December 24th. Entry forms are available at various stores and one lucky winner will be able to win back up to $500 by saving receipts.

Congratulations to Kathleen Quinn of Irish Crossroads who headed up our float committee for the 48th Annual Patchogue Main Street Christmas Parade. With the parade's theme of It's a Go Green Christmas, how could we go wrong with an Irish chairperson? And the Chamber float was Best Overall. Also thank you to helpers David Zegel, Laura and Ralph Zegel, Chuck Hebron, Lori Belmonte, Edward Mullally and also Clare Rose for their cooperation.

The Christmas tree at Capital One Bank Plaza puts us right in the holiday spirit. Thank you of course to Capital One Bank, Tom Chickory from Tom's Yard Work, Mindy Skura, Lori
