WORKING FOR A
GREATER PATCHOGUE

Volume 8, Issue 2
February 2005

This year's community holiday tree, a live tree installed every season at North Fork Bank Plaza has been replanted at the northwest corner of the Terry Street parking lot. Our thanks to North Bank for their generous donation of the tree and its lights each year and to the Village workers who make it happen.

Father Kevin Is St. Pat's Parade Grand Marshall

The Rev. Kevin M. Smith, Pastor of St. Francis de Sales Roman Catholic Church in Patchogue, will lead the Patchogue St. Patrick's Parade when it kicks off at 2 p.m. on Mar. 20. In his bio, he describes himself as "75% Irish and 25% German," and says his great-grandparents were born in County Clare.

Fr. Smith was ordained a priest in 1988 and served parishes in Ronkonkoma, Elmont, Manhasset and Massapequa before coming to Patchogue in June, 2002. He was named Nassau County Fire Chaplain in 1997 and worked in that capacity at the World Trade Center, arriving there as the second tower was collapsing. Since then he has been a member of the Advisory Board of "Home Ground," an outreach and support program for World Trade Center rescue and recovery workers and their families. He is also a member of the Advisory Board of the Tuesday's Children Foundation, a non-profit family service organization that has made a long-term commitment to every child that lost a parent on 9/11, providing mentoring, child advocacy, life skills training and companionship. Fr. Smith is also on the National Executive Board of the National Catholic Committee on Scouting as the Chaplain for the Dioceses in New York State and the National Director of the Catholic Youth Leadership Project, "The St. George Trek".

Fr. Smith, who has a BA in Psychology, a Masters of Divinity Degree, and numerous certificates in Post Trauma Counseling, enjoys camping, skiing, scuba diving and sailing in his free time.

Long Island Film

"Sneak Preview" of L.I. Thriller Under Surveillance Debuts New Film Series At The Patchogue Theatre

Under Surveillance, a psychological thriller, filmed on Long Island, will kick-off a new monthly film series, presented at the Patchogue Theater on Wednesday, Feb. 23 at 7:30 p.m., under the aegis of the Long Island Film Festival.

The film focuses on Julian Besler, who moves back to his father's house—a house that has been renovated to support four apartments, seven people...one killer. Believing one of his new housemates is behind a brutal series of crimes, Justin places them under video surveillance. It's a question of who and why. "It's part Rear Window, it's part Scream, says co-star David Rigg. "Lot's of twists and turns. It's just flat out scary fun...a phenomenal first film".

David Campfield's debut film was shot entirely on Long Island, with locations including Northport, Sayville, Oakdale, and Huntington.

Under Surveillance co-stars Felisa Rose and Desiree Gould from the classic cult horror film Sleepaway Camp. Writer/Director David Campfield and cast and crew will attend a panel discussion immediately following the presentation.

"Best of Festival-Comedy Short" Modern Mann, directed by Peter Browngart will be screened before the feature film.

For further information call the Patchogue Theater at 71 East Main Street, Patchogue, NY 11722. Telephone (631) 207-1313 or 207-1300— fax 207-1391—email: info@patchoguetheatre.com. Check the web—www.patchoguetheatre.com and www.lifilm.org.
