Alive After Five—Off To A Good Start

The weather timing was perfect. A rainy Friday, May 28 turned magically glorious just at opening time to make for an outstanding first night for our summer long Main Street fair. Crowds were very good and there were lots of favorable comments.

Next up is June 11. Featured bands that night will be Misspent Youth at the BrickHouse stage, The Still Life at the Trio stage and Reckoning at the Blue Point stage

Business Promotion

Our Father's Day Promotion will begin on June 1 and will offer a chance for Dad and his guest to attend a Long Island Ducks baseball game on Wed. evening, July 21.

I encourage all businesses to again decorate their windows for Memorial Day. Upstairs, too, a flag in the window would be great. We are part of a very patriotic Patchogue and it is important to let customers know that we share in that patriotism.

It is nice to see so many people joining in the litter campaign. We must keep our streets clean. Every little bit helps us have a much cleaner business area which does impress Patchogue visitors.

I am looking forward to the hanging flower baskets.

—Lorice Fiala, Chairperson

Street Planters

The flowers in the business district are a cooperative effort involving the Foundation's Beautification Committee, headed by Sylvia Roeloffs, The BID and the Village. If you are a business owner, your participation would also be appreciated.

If there is a planter near your store, please keep an eye on it. Empty the trash mistakenly placed in it, and if necessary add some water.

The flowers are a great addition to our downtown, but we all need to help keeping them beautiful.

Grand Opening

Little Treasures Child Care Center is open at the rear of the Congregational Church. Lisa Salvatore (with scissors) is the owner.

Memorial Day Parade
