New Concessionaire at Fire Island

Fire Island National Seashore has awarded a new 10 year concessions contract for the operation of park facilities at Watch Hill, Sailors Haven and Barrett Beach. Included are two marinas, a campground, three snack bars, two convenience stores and a restaurant.

The contract, awarded to Fire Island Concessions, LLC, owned by Sayville Ferry Co. operator Ken Stein, includes a commitment by Stein to invest $1,259,000 in facilities improvement. Included will be an upgraded Watch Hill electrical system and repaired docks and bulkheads there. The Watch Hill snack bar and restaurant will also be renovated. The snack bar is open this season, but the restaurant is not expected to re-open until next summer.

Watch Hill will also get an additional snack bar and convenience store. Marina improvements are slated for Sailors Haven. Barrett Beach needs dock work before it can open with new ferry service, probably next year.

A Festive Start to Summer Season Irish Fest and SeaFair Score

The biggest Irish talent lineup in the state was free to visitors at the Sliante Irish Festival in Shorefront Park, June 4, 5 and 6.

More than 40 new boats were on display along with music, food, children's entertainment, ferryboat river tours and vendors at SeaFair 2005 at the Watch Hill Ferry Terminal on June 10, 11 and 12.
