Barbershop Quartet

There seems to be something about Mr. Nick's Barber Shop at 153 Rt. 112 in Patchogue that encourages twins. Four sets of them. Owner Nick Smith and his wife Shiela have two new girls.

Barber Phil Abbate and his wife Marrisol also have twins, a boy and a girl

In addition, the former owner has two boys and a former employee has two girls.

Nick is a nephew of Chamber President Tom Keegan and wife Peggy and of Tom and Karen Lynch at Morgan's Beach House Restaurant & Marina.

Sash Is Passed For St. Pat's 04

Peggy Halverson, representing last year's Grand Marshall, her father Ed Halverson, passes the Grand Marshall's sash to this year's honoree, Judge William Underwood.

This year's passing of the sash ceremony preceding the St. Patrick's parade on Mar. 28 was held at On The Waterfront, the restaurant owned by last year's Grand Marshall, Ed Halverson. Ed, in Florida, was represented by his daughter, Peggy. Our annual soda bread baking contest was won by Prestano's Bakery.

The parade, beginning at the East end of Main Street at 2 p.m. will be bigger than ever with seven and possibly eight pipe bands. The parade is sponsored by the Patchogue Village Department of Parks and Recreation under the capable hands of Luann, Kerry and Trustee Pam Barr. Cooperating in the effort is the Foundation's Cultural Heritage Committee chaired by Jim McPeak.

Mar. 20 will see our annual "May The Road Rise To Meet Ye" 5K run starting at 10 a.m. at St. Francis De Sales Hall on Division Street.

Cultural Heritage

As Chairman of the Cultural Heritage Committee of The Greater Patchogue Foundation, I would like to extend a heartfelt thanks to the members and supporters of the events of the committee.

The events sponsored by the committee will heighten cultural awareness and appreciation, essential elements of a successful community.

March will see a celebration in Patchogue of Irish heritage, capped by the St. Patrick's Parade, sponsored by the Village Recreation Department, on Mar. 28. Publication of The Wit and Wisdom News will celebrate the parade's honoree, The Honorable William L. Underwood, a life long Patchogue resident. We will celebrate the Irish culture and take a few moments out of our busy schedules to appreciate the contributions that have made many communities better places.

The committee and the Village Recreation Department will also sponsor the "May the Road Rise To Meet Ye" 5K run on Mar. 20.

While we honor the Irish this month, it is important for people of all cultures to participate in the Cultural Heritage Committee so that we can have more events that celebrate Patchogue and its people. I invite everyone to share their ideas with me.

—James P. McPeak, Greater Patchogue Foundation Cultural Heritage Committee Chairman

Village Promotion

Our "Share The Luck of the Irish" promotion will be Mar. 8 through Mar. 25. We will have three winners of $100 cash each. Winners will be drawn on Mar. 28 at the BrickHouse Brewery following the St. Patrick's Parade. Participating businesses are encouraged to have customers fill in the entry forms. It is a great way to build your customer mailing list, and customers do smile at the prospect of perhaps winning $100.

Congratulations to committee member Janet Pickett of Patchogue Printing on her nomination to represent our chamber as Member of the Year at the annual Brookhaven Town Chambers of Commerce Coalition Dinner.

Three cheers for Franklin, the Patchogue Business Improvement District worker. Franklin is the man you have seen sweeping the sand off the streets, emptying the garbage receptacles, picking up litter and still smiling when you greet him, even in sub-freezing temperatures. Let's give him a hand with the litter and the sweeping.

If you enter your business from the rear, check out your front side-walks every day. Our image needs to be improved so let's start at the front door.

And don't forget to leave a night light on in your business, upstairs or downstairs.

—Lortice Fiala, Chairperson

Eating For Beautification Monday, April 26
