Sea Fair Set

A committee headed by Mike Bruemmer is hard at work on Sea Fair 2005 which will be held on June 10, 11 and 12 at the FINS Ferry Terminal on West Avenue.

The event will feature a nautical fair, in-water boat show, nautical historical displays and carnival rides. It will open on Friday afternoon and continue through the weekend with live music, international style food and beverages from local restaurants and breweries.

The fair, supported by a large advertising budget, is aimed at the whole family with numerous nautical events and children's activities.

The annual Blessing of the Fleet and a Pirate Treasure hunt will round out the weekend on Sunday.

The committee needs additional members. It meets every Wednesday night at 6 p.m. at the Harbor Crab Restaurant. Come on down. You can call Mike at 804-0595.

Morgans Wins for Soda Bread

At our Passing of the Sash celebration at Patchogue Manor on Feb. 27, we sampled soda bread entries from BrickHouse Brewery, Harbor Crab Co., Morgan's Beachhouse Restaurant and Marina, On the Waterfront, Patchogue Manor, Prestano's Bakery, and Swan Bakery.

Morgan's was voted the winner, edging Patchogue Manor by one vote and Tom Lynch from Morgan's claimed the trophy from last year's winner—Prestano's.

Roundabouts Come Around Again

They used to be called traffic circles, and, according to a website devoted to their modern version— Modern Roundabouts (roundabouts.kittelson.com)

Roundabout proposed for Great Neck, Long Island.

they have been part of the U.S. transportation system since 1905 when Columbus Circle opened in New York City. There are two familiar local versions in Riverhead.

Such circles fell out of favor in the mid 1950's because of accident and congestion problems. The modern roundabout was developed in the United Kingdom in the 1960's. These modern versions are significantly different in design and operation, and are being considered by transportation officials, including those in New York for, among other things, their aesthetic and traffic calming advantages.

The New York State Department of Transportation Roundabout Design Unit will hold a public information meeting on March 21, 7 p.m. at William Floyd Middle School.

Merle Norman Cosmetics has opened at 56 Medford Ave., Patchogue. The owner is Helen Zaleski.

Business Promotion

These are the upcoming Patchogue Business promotions. The month of April will feature a Spring Coloring Contest. In May, there will be a Mother's Day Flower giveaway. In June it will be a Father's Day Baseball Game Raffle. Carnival Days are July, 7, 8 and 9 featuring family entertainment on the streets on Thursday, the 7th. July 8th is the first Alive After 5. Fireworks are on July 9. Alive After 5 is also set for July 22, August 5, August 19, September 2 and September 16.

Here's a marketing tip from David Zegel at Weiner's Shoes: collect e-mail addresses from your customers and send out advertising messages. It's a great way to send last minute promotion news at no cost.

Long Island Film

The Long Island Film Festival will present a screening of the dramatic film Eyes Beyond Seeing starring soap star Keith Hamilton Cobb (The Young & The Restless) on Thursday, March 24, at 8p.m. at the Patchogue Theatre for the Performing Arts.

Directed by Long Islander Daniel R. Cohn, Eyes Beyond Seeing is a moving and sensitive psychological drama.

In the film, psychiatrist John Harrington councils an enigmatic mental patient that may or may not be the second coming of Christ. Keith Hamilton Cobb portrays a emotionally disturbed carpenter who has almost everyone convinced he has a "divine" calling.

Itw was filmed on location at the former Kings Park State Hospital and various other L.I. sites. More information is at www.patchoguetheatre.com and www.lifilm.org.

The '04 Film Fest 1st Prize Winner-Animation (comedy short) Diamonds are Golden, directed by Derrik Dean will be screened before
