WORKING FOR A
GREATER PATCHOGUE

Volume 7, Issue 10
October 2004

High Employment

Workers from Henry Restoration Inc. have begun replacing the original 114 year old slate on the steeple of the United Methodist Church of Patchogue at South Ocean Ave. and Church St. The church, built in 1890 is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

The project, expected to take a month, will also include slate replacement on a portion of the main sanctuary roof.

Yesteryears Again

Mindy Skura (center with scissors) is the owner of Remember Yesteryears which has opened at 46 East Main St. (next to the library). The large space features a large variety of antiques and collectables. Mindy formally owned Yesteryears, a few steps away, in what is now Dollar King.

Community Event Listings

If your organization has an event scheduled in 2005, please e-mail (info@patchoguechamber.com) or fax (475-1599) the details to us.

We are working on a list of events and already have quite a few scheduled.

Make Plans for the Holidays

Our annual holiday boat parade on the Patchogue River is scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 21 at 6 p.m. The theme this year is "Caribbean Holiday". The entry fee is $25. We need boats and motivated boaters who can dress up their craft in holiday finery. We also need some backstage people to help out beforehand and on the event day.

The Main Street Holiday Parade and North Fork Bank Plaza tree lighting is Saturday, Nov. 27. We will also schedule a Menorah Lighting (at North Fork Bank Plaza) for early December.

New Theatre Board Member

Village Trustee Jack Krieger, liaison to the Patchogue Theater for the Performing Arts, announced at the Sept. 27 meeting of the Village Board that the Theater Board has approved the nomination of village resident and local businessman John W. Ashline as their newest member. Currently, besides Mr. Ashline, members to the Theater Board are: Victor Yannacone, Jr., Chairman, Louis Giordano, William Knapp, Mary Pontieri and John Hazzard.

The board is also looking to add more members. Anyone interested should send a resume to The Patchogue Theatre for the Performing Arts, PO Box 2400, Patchogue, NY 11772 or e-mail to info@patchoguetheatre.com. Qualified candidates will be required to interview with the board of directors.

Kreiger also says he wants to establish a theatre-based organization to reach out to residents, local businesses and the music and arts community to develop special events, sponsorships and fundraisers to benefit the theatre.
